SELLER MUST KEEP THIS CERTIFICATE

INSTRUCTIONS

This certificate is not valid unless it contains the purchaser’s District of Columbia Sales and Use Tax Registration Number. It must be signed by the owner or authorized officer and must be dated.

If the issuer of the certificate of resale buys items from the seller that do not qualify for tax exemption, you should advise the seller to charge the appropriate sales tax on such items. Otherwise, the purchaser is required to report use tax directly using the Sales and Use Tax returns (FR-800A or FR-800M) to the Office of Tax and Revenue.

The seller must retain all Certificates of Resale on file to substantiate exemptions in case of an audit of your D.C. Sales and Use Tax returns.

Purchasers who are located outside the District of Columbia and make no retail sales in the District should submit a FR-500 application for a D.C. Certificate of Registration number. The D.C. Certificate of Registration number is required to complete a Certificate of Resale (copy provided to seller) for items intended for resale outside of the District.

Applicants for Income and Franchise Tax Exemption under Sec. 47-1802.1 of the D.C. Code:

Most organizations which are recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as exempt under the Federal Income Tax Law will qualify for exemption under the District of Columbia Income and Franchise Tax Act. The effective date for all income and franchise tax exemptions will be the date on the determination letter issued by the Office of Tax and Revenue.

Applicants for Sales and Use Tax Exemptions under Sec. 47-2005 of the D.C. Code:

Under the District of Columbia Sales and Use Tax Act sales made to any organization which qualifies as a "semipublic institution" are exempt from the tax. A "semipublic" institution is defined under Sec. 47-2001(r) of the Act as "any corporation, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized exclusively for religious, scientific, charitable, or educational purposes, including hospitals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual." This exemption is limited to those organizations, which have been recognized as tax exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or comparable sections under prior codes).

SEMI-PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS ARE RECOGNIZED AS TAX EXEMPT IF THOSE INSTITUTIONS ARE PHYSICALLY LOCATED IN THE DISTRICT.

The exemption applies only to those transactions, which occur on or after the date of the issuance of a Certificate of Exemption by the Office of Tax and Revenue.

Personal Property Tax Exemption under Sec. 47-1508 of the D.C. Code:

Organizations requesting an exemption from D.C. Personal Property Tax must own the personal property for which the request is being made, and qualify under Title 47, Section 1508 of the D.C. Code. Organizations that may qualify for exemption are any corporation, and community chest, fund or foundation, organized exclusively for religious, scientific, charitable, or educational purposes, including hospitals, no part of the net earnings of which inure to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual. The effective date for personal property tax exemptions will be the July 1 following the date of the initial application request.
